Swami Bodhananda is a renowned Vedanta Seer and Scholar who has been teaching Vedanta, Meditation, and Indian Theory of Management in the context of contemporary developments. He is charismatic public speaker.

Swamiji interprets the Indian philosophy, religion and culture for modern day managers so that they can attain excellence in work. On one hand modern managers are caught between materialistic values of modern management and spiritual values of modern age and the spiritual values of our ancient culture. Swami Bodhananda with his deep knowledge of Indian religions and philosophy as well as the modern western thought, reconciles the view points and presents an Indian Management style.
